

Art Teenies at home

Create a collage like Dean Cross and Emma Rani Hodges

In Art Teenies, we get under 5's talking about and making art.

Above are two works of art by artist Dean Cross. The image on the right is called 'Cataclysm' and is in exhibition 'Icarus, my Son' at Goulburn Regional Art Gallery 17 jul.– 28 aug. 2021.

Below is an installation shot of work by Emma Rani Hodges in Gallery 2. Collage combines lots of images and ideas to create new ones. Both of these artists have used collage to explore their own identity.

Storytime

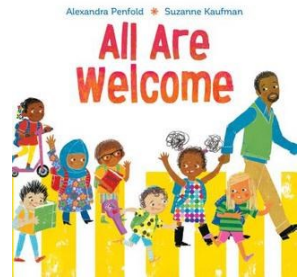

Goulburn Mulwaree Library has a great selection of books on this topic. Check out these titles.

Let's get making!

What you'll need:

- Photos
- Glue
- Paper
- Scissors

Step 1

Find some photos from your photo reel, magazines, catalogues or old books. Include a photo of yourself. Cut out your images (ask an older person to help you).

Step 2

Arrange your photos on your page to create a new story. When you are happy with the placement, glue them down.

Well done on your finished masterpiece!
